Aims

Pharmacy (ISSN 2226-4787) is an open access journal which provides an advanced forum for studies on all aspects of pharmacy education and practice. It publishes original articles, reviews, communications, and case reports. Our aim is to encourage practicing pharmacists and healthcare professionals, academic researchers, and scientists to publish their experimental and theoretical results in as much detail as possible. There is no restriction on the maximum length of the papers. The full experimental details must be provided so that results can be reproduced. Electronic files or software regarding the full details of the calculation and experimental procedure, if unable to be published in a normal way, can be deposited as supplementary material.
