Message from the Editor-in-Chief

We would like to extend a warm welcome to all members of the Editorial Board and invite scholars within the field of lymphatics and the related disorders to join us as we develop this promising new journal. We hope that you will enjoy publishing with us and reading publications in this unique journal.

Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Dr. Varsha Gandhi

Aims

Lymphatics (ISSN 2813-3307) is an international open access journal that provides an advanced platform for basic and clinical studies of the lymphatic system and its disorders, including related fields. Our aim is to provide rigorous peer review and enable rapid publication of cutting-edge research to educate and inspire the scientific community worldwide.

Scope

- Lymphatic system and lymph nodes;
- Cancers associated with lymphatics—lymphoma; acute lymphoblastic leukemia; chronic lymphocytic leukemia
- Cancers progressed through lymphatics—metastasis;
- Lymphocytes as microenvironment;
- Lymphocytes as drugs;
- Lymphatic vessels;
- Lymphocytes biology and development;
- Lymphoid tissues;
- Lymphatics and inflammation.

We encourage scientists to publish their research articles and concepts that revolve around above topics. There is no restriction on the maximum length of papers. Large electronic files, software, movies, etc. that cannot be published in the main paper can be posted as supplementary material. Full experimental and/or methodological details must be provided so that the results can be reproduced. We also accept proposals for review articles that are not part of Special Issues and interesting images with detailed legends and reference citations.
