Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Vaccines (ISSN 2076-393X) has had a 12-year history of publishing peer-reviewed state of the art research that advances the knowledge of immunology in human disease protection.

Immunotherapeutics, prophylactic vaccines, immunomodulators, adjuvants and the global differences in regulatory affairs are some of the highlights of the research published that have shaped global health. Our open access policy allows all researchers and interested parties to immediately scrutinize the rigorous evidence our publications have to offer. We are proud to present the work and perspectives of many to contribute to future decisions concerning human health.

Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Dr. Ralph A. Tripp

Aims

Vaccines is an international, peer-reviewed open access journal focused on laboratory and clinical vaccine research, utilization and immunization. It publishes reviews, research articles, case reports, etc. There is no restriction on the maximum length of papers. We encourage scientists to publish the results in as much detail as possible.
